"Where Are My Children?"A SPECIAL FEATURE IN FIVE ACTS
A SMASHING, DARING SUBJECT DONE IN A SMASHING WAY
SENSATIONAL, POWERFUL AND DIGNIFIEDRead What the Clergy and Public Have Said:

"Where Are My Children?" is a powerful and gripping picture drama. You glad to have returned it and you prompt to commend it. It deals with a most difficult subject in a manner of unusual dignity. If the special type of inquiry which it suggests is anywhere near at present, as is claimed, the public should have the opportunity to witness the presentation.—C. H. Parkhurst.

Washington, D. C., April 25th, 1916.
Universal Film Mfg. Co.'s New picture, "Where Are My Children?" is a modern Bible and should be seen by every soul in the world over sixteen years of age. It is great for truth and proper knowledge.—William J. Stone, United States Senator.

TELEGRAH

Hon. William Wilson, President of the United States, Washington, D. C., May 1, 1916: You will see and approve the motion picture, "Where Are My Children?" A great and proper argument for the need of humanity. I have seen it twice.—Signed, John J. Hughes, C. S. P. Superior General.

I thoroughly realized that the Word of God was always spoken from the pulpit. It has the greatest appeal for good, clear pictures I have ever seen.—Miss Kathryn W. Earle, 303 West 45th St., New York City.

Stronger than a sermon. A new and powerful argument for good, clear and forceful in its presentation. The members of the Board of Governors who refused to pass it should resign or be fired.—Brooklyn Daily Eagle, 145 West 45th St., New York City.

Says It Has Not Eradicated
Coyotes, Mountain Lions and Wolves; New Act Proposed.

The New Mexico Cattle & Horsegrowers' Association are agreed that the present bounty law fails of its purpose. It has not, they claim, eradicated the coyotes, mountain lions and wolves. However, they are not seeking to repeal the old law and the enactment of a new measure without being fully prepared with figures to back up their claims in regard to the efficacy, or ineffectiveness, of the old law.

Finance, given out by Secretary Miller of the cattlemen's association, show long conclusively that the present bounty law is a heavy burden to the state, out of all proportion to the benefits gained. Since the enactment of the bounty law in 1903 it has cost the state $274,000. And in addition to the money already paid out for bounty claims, the State of the New Mexico is a victim of the expense of their claim more. This is due to the fact that the states of the Union are elsewhere as much as those that have received the amounts for the state, which will aggregate more than $100,000. Therefore the total cost to the state since the past eight years has been close to $374,000.

With all this money that has gone out, the bounty system has not saved or nothing more than the increase in predatory animals. According to the government top experts there is now Mexico softer a loss of sheep per capita than that made each year from those animals. The value of sheep in the state of Georgia in 1915 was $12 million and on this basis the sheep industry will be an additional $20 million. Based on this estimate, the only estimate for the value of the loss from gray wolves alone at more than $100,000.

A conference of the cattlemen, together with a committee from the New Mexico legislature, Dr. James L. Johnson, president of the Game Protection Association and the Secretary of State, Fred C. Chapman, on October 10th, will discuss the problem of protecting the cattle and sheep and the damage done to the sheep and the damage done to the cattle. At this meeting Mr. Chapman had a brief speech in which he said that a bill would be introduced. The bill would provide that a sheep owner could not be liable for damage to his sheep if the damage was done by a wolf or coyote. This will depend on the fact that a sheep owner can prove that the animal which did the damage was not a wolf or coyote. Other discussions include financial aid to the sheep industry.
